Event Name: Donation Drive

Date: November 14, 2022

Attendees: 70

JAAGRITI- The Enabling Unit of Sri Guru Gobind Singh College Of Commerce organized a donation drive and a fundraising event on November 14 2020, i.e. Children's Day in order to raise awareness on Epilepsy and raise funds to be donated to Anukriti school, Seemapuri, a NGO for mentally disabled students.

Funds were raised by the amount donated by the students of the college and the members of the society and all of the funds raised were used for the purpose of donation. In this event, all the team members coordinated and came together to make it a great success.

The team gave duties at a desk at the Amphitheatre in college and a notice board was acquired which was decorated with facts on Epilepsy, noble works of Jaagrity and the numerous memories that the society had made in the past years in the form of pictures. The elegant work done could be clearly depicted by the efforts put up by the team members in decorating the notice board. All the students donated and the team gave awareness on Epilepsy Day, the Do's and Don'ts which should be applied and kept in mind on Epilepsy Day, informing about what epilepsy is, its symptoms and also how to deal with it.

Event Name: All India Confederation for the Blind(AICB) Visit

Date: 28 October 2022

Attendees: 6

Jaagrity- the Enabling Unit of Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce planned a visit to AICB (All India Confederation of the Blind), Rohini, on 28th October 2022 as a part of its campaign SAFAR 2.0.

All India Confederation of the Blind (AICB) is a body of blind persons working for and with the blind community. It is made up of various state level associations/organizations, working at the grass root level.

The visit began with the interview of the Secretary General of AICB Padma Sri JL KAUL. It was an amazing and interactive experience to interview them, as he enlightened us with the motto of the AICB and told us about many of his life experiences and what he learnt from them. After the interview he organized a full tour of the organization for the student volunteers.

It was an amazing experience to see those blind children studying, who face numerous problems in their routine life due to their disability. Mr. JL Kaul explained to us how the association works and manages to face challenges they face in their day-to-day routine. The classes were well maintained and it was a healthy environment for the children studying there.

AICB not only provides education to the blind children but also provides work experiences and many more highly advanced studies to the blind children and it focuses on making their career bright and optimistic. AICB focuses on making the blind children equally equipped with all the resources and knowledge that this world has to offer by providing them with the equal opportunities that a physically and mentally fit child gets in his life.

Event Name: Feet Me Up NGO VisitDate: 14 September 2022*Attendees: 10

Jaagruti- the enabling unit of SGGSCC organized a field Visit to Feet me up, Delhi on 14th September 2022 with a team of 10 students.

Feet me up is an NGO working with the children suffering from autism and making them explore their hidden talents in them and boosting their confidence, Feet me up makes customized shoes for their customers and all the work is done by those children present there.

The visit began with a lot of enthusiasm and energy among the volunteers of the society. We were welcomed by the NGO members on the entrance itself.

The visit was scheduled in two shifts, consisting of five volunteers in each of the shift because the children there could get flustered by seeing so many outsiders at once as they are suffering from autism.

Visit started with an interactive session with the kids of the NGO. Our team was amazed seeing how perfectly those kids were managing all the work they had.

There were fun sessions organized by the volunteers and our team played many fun games like passing the parcel, musical chairs and many more with the children and also had dancing and singing sessions with them.

Our team was awestruck by the beauty of handmade goodies prepared by the students of the NGO including customized hats, shoes, bags, etc.

Event Name: Echoes Cafe VisitDate: 4 September 2022*Attendees: 20

JAAGRITI – The Enabling Unit of Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce conducted its first interview of Safar 2.0 with Mr. Kshitij Behl, Co-founder of Echoes Café in New Delhi on 3rd September 2022 via zoom.

The whole interview was enlightened by his vision to support the PWD community. In the interview he explained how he paved his way towards the betterment of the society by mobilizing resources and how Echoes has employed all the staff which were specially abled. He explained his journey throughout the inception of the café, and how the café grew despite all the difficulties faced by him.

He shared his experience where he encountered such scenes often where specially abled people were working behind the scenes and that's when it came to his mind to bring up such people on forefront and give them the spotlight that they deserve. He was considerate enough to share the details about Echoes' journey which included the obstacles faced and also how they trained their staff first. His words not only depicted his passion towards integrity but also his business skills amalgamated with his idea to work for the society. He also shared a useful piece of feedback for our students.

Our team visited the café on 4th September 2022. The cafe was nonetheless similar to every other cafe in the town with aesthetic vibes and tasty food.
