ABOUT THE SYMPOSIUM

India is fast emerging as a centre of higher learning on the global stage. The last few decades witnessed a rapid expansion in higher education with the focus being on access, equity and excellence. Quality assurance is crucial for improving the higher education sector and nurturing institutes as hubs of innovation and critical thinking. Ratings in this context play a significant role by appointing high quality standards and differentiating between institutes based on quality. This symposium seeks to examine various parameters on which the accreditation and ranking systems are based and deliberating on whether these are actually ensuring continuous improvements and excellence in the system.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The Symposium will be of immense interest to faculty from central and private universities as well as B-Schools across India. It is equally relevant for professionals, researchers and students.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE
