NOTICE

Subject: Strict Compliance with Minimum Attendance Requirement for December 2026 Examination

All students are hereby informed that maintaining the minimum required attendance of 66.7% in the current semester is mandatory for eligibility to appear in the December 2026 examinations.

Students whose attendance falls below 66.7% will not be permitted to enter the examination hall or appear in the December examinations in accordance with the applicable university rules and guidelines.

Furthermore, students whose attendance was below the above-mentioned criteria and submitted an affidavit in the previous semester regarding their shortage of attendance are hereby cautioned that they must strictly maintain the minimum attendance requirement in the current semester. If their attendance falls below 66.7%, they will be detained from appearing in the December examinations, and their admit cards will not be issued.

The University has directed that strict guideline be implemented to address attendance-related issues. Therefore, all students are instructed to attend their classes regularly and ensure that their attendance remains at or above the prescribed minimum requirement.

No student should assume that an affidavit submitted in the previous semester will provide any exemption from the current semester's attendance requirements.

All students are advised to take this notice seriously and ensure strict compliance to avoid any inconvenience or disqualification from the December examinations.
