MIZRAAB – 2025

Day 1- 4th April 2025

Surveen proudly hosted its flagship event with the much-awaited Inter-College Music Competitions on the first day. Held in the Seminar Hall of our college, the event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across Delhi University. The competitions were organised across multiple categories including Classical Music, Light Music, and Instrumental Music, each performance reflecting immense talent, dedication, and musical finesse. Renowned judges from the field of music were invited to evaluate the participants, lending credibility and grace to the event. The hall resonated with soulful ragas, melodious tunes, and intricate rhythms, leaving the audience and judges mesmerised. Day 1 set a strong foundation for the grandeur of the flagship event.

Day 2- 5th April 2025

The second day of Surveen's flagship event brought an electrifying aura with the much-celebrated Battle of Bands. Bands representing various colleges showcased their passion and creativity on stage, filling the atmosphere with pulsating energy and dynamic performances. From rock to fusion, every band presented a unique identity, engaging the audience and creating an unforgettable musical experience. The competition highlighted teamwork, innovation, and musical diversity, with the stage turning into a powerhouse of rhythm, melody, and beats. With thunderous applause and spirited cheering from the crowd, Day 2 was a spectacular conclusion to the flagship event, further strengthening Surveen's identity as a hub of musical excellence.

Outlook

Surveen remains committed to building a vibrant community where passion, rhythm, and creativity come together. By hosting soulful performances, engaging jam sessions, and skill-enhancing workshops, the society continues to nurture talent while fostering an environment of collaboration, expression, and musical innovation
