

Bil'2019, SGGSCC

"The most successful event is the one that achieves your goals and exceeds your expectations"

This is what 70 students of Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce managed to do. BIL'19 came to Delhi as a bigger and grander affair.

From having Kanishk Priyadarshi from Scoopwhoop and Onkar Khullar, The Digital Gandhi host an unprecedented number of attendees eagerly waiting to see their favourite artists perform, to having these artists bring the stage down with their indisputable talent, BIL'19 saw it all.

Gaurav Gupta and Parvinder Singh from Canvas Laughter, Manhar Seth from Social house club, Veshesh, the Percussionist, Nikhita Gandhi, the popular Bollywood singer R. Prasannan from The Week, Avelo Roy, Startup Advisor to the Prime Minister of Nepal and Ankit Dawar, Director of PwC were among the artists who graced BIL with your presence and delivered talks.

The event was an avenue of learning for the young minds that attended it with the stories of these speakers which were inspirational and motivational. It also included a dance performance by the Bhangra Society which was well received, as evidenced by the grooves of the attendees.

Overall, the event proved to be a paragon of success and did not fail to bring smile on the faces of everyone who attended it.
