

Months of laborious preparations finally culminated into a successful TEDxSGGSCC on 16th February 2019 at Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce.

TEDxSGGSCC aspired to bring about a novel change, helping us advance the road to successes, one step at a time with their theme TURN THE PAGE.

It was a day full of pristine energy, the audience chock-full with influencers and Intellectual stimulation through the means of talks, innovation and exploration, all in Tandem with TED's spirit, 'Ideas worth Spreading'.

Starting the day early at 9:30, the speakers and attendees were handed over their kits and refreshments. The Principal of SGGSCC was called upon to formally initiate the event and later the stage was handed over to the anchor for the day.

The speakers of the first session were Prachi Jha who is the CoFounder of DAAK, Prakhar Srivastava, a tech enthusiast speaking on the ever growing Artificial Intelligence, Sonam C Chhabra, Poshak Dua, a scientific mindreader whose performance left everyone in awe, Jyoti Pahadsingh, an environmentalist fighting plastic pollution with small steps, Akshay Nayar, an actor and video producer at ScoopWhoop gave 3 insights from his journey so far and Dr. Gaurav Sangtani, a multifaceted personality talked about disagreements and speaking up.

After a stimulating first session, the lunch break was announced along with the Speaker-attendee meet and greet. Enthusiastic attendees received an opportunity to Interact with the speakers and get to know more about them and their ideas.

The second session resumed soon after the lunch and the first speaker was Janvi Anand, a soulful musician who performed her song 'Come Home' leaving the audience mesmerized. Avi Arya, a social media influencer and leading entrepreneur talked about ways to enhance your business through media. Dr Kosta couldn't attend the event due to severe health conditions and was represented by his official spokesperson who talked about his achievements and an upcoming technology that could prevent ambushes. The Crochets gave an entrancing performance and Utkarsh Kumar Singh, an innovator, spoke about always finding a way. Urshita Saini, a birth photographer talked about the obstacles faced while introducing birth photography for the first time in India. The last speaker for the day was Kanishk Priyadarshi, an actor and anchor at ScoopWhoop who talked about his journey and left the audience with a smile on their faces.

High Tea was announced for all the speakers and attendees with another brief meet and greet session. The event concluded with a thank you note from our Head Organiser, Riya Manchanda and Co-Organiser, Sarthak Kathuria. Our well received and unique stage design was appreciated by everyone.

The stage of TEDxSGGSCC had a positive impact on those in attendance and will be displayed on the TEDx Talks YouTube Channel which has an international audience. The event was a great success and is reflected in a positive feedback received from the attendees.
